BRYAN STATION HIGH SCHOOL BAND

Lexington, Kentucky

Bryan Station High School is a truly unique place. Our kids are blessed with many opportunities within our walls. We house a renowned information technology program, a Spanish immersion program, a nationally-lauded guitar program and a flourishing Station Arts Program. We serve the largest population of disadvantaged kids in Fayette County. Most of our students qualify for free and reduced lunch. In addition, our school is the most ethnically and racially diverse in the district.

The Bryan Station High School Band is a demographic mirror image of the school as a whole. Despite many obstacles, our Defenders Band puts tremendous effort into their preparation and incredible sacrifices to be a band families work of our students' needs are themselves, grandparents, and friends to spend hours uniforms, maintaining preparing food, and raising and fees that would be many. Several of our band mentors and move on to and marching bands, often performances. They make part of the experience. Our tirelessly to ensure that all met, volunteering aunts and uncles, siblings washing and tailoring instruments, building sets, funds to mitigate the costs otherwise unaffordable to members become youth perform in college concert with the support of scholarship funds. We are so proud of our band. Many of our kids would have no other access to the music instruction, discipline and social experience offered in our band program were it not for the generous support of community partners like you.

Marching and concert bands are expensive. The price of one (gently used) sousaphone hovers around $8,000. However, the experience of being in a high school band is priceless. 100% of your tax deductible contribution will be dedicated to instruments, travel expenses, events, and the singular experience of our Defenders band.

Please consider advertising with us, in support of our Bryan Station Band. We thank you!!!
